

LARGE CLAIMS LAID

PARTIES IN GREATER NEW YORK
WILL NOT DIE OF MODESTY.

Tammany is boldest and most confident of all, and the betting money speaks the same language as the Tiger-Tracey Republicans have a genuine confidence, however less than Tammany's. The most sweeping claim is that made by Messrs. Sheehan and Croker, representing the Tammany organization, and which has practical endorsement of the betting men about town, who all along have been offering odds on Van Wyck.

The claim, however, that the Tammany ticket will receive 250,000 out of the 475,000 votes registered in Greater New York is scouted by other party leaders.

Next to Tammany, the greatest display of confidence is at Republican headquarters, where there seems to be a genuine belief that General Tracey will win. Seth Low's managers profess to be confident, and those of George to be satisfied.

HUNDREDS OF MEETINGS.
Whatever may be the actual belief of the leaders, there is no disposition to allow the battle to go by default. There are in progress nightly from 200 to 500 political meetings. This includes, of course, the minor gatherings in assembly district and ward club rooms. It is claimed that for the remaining fortnight of the campaign the Tracey leaders have arranged for an average of 200 meetings per night, at each of which there will be full complement of speakers.

A reminder of the other interest shown in the campaign of last fall is the work of women, either organized into clubs or acting independently. Thus far General Tracey and Mr. George seem to have the call in favor of the female portion of the population, and many of the McKinley and Bryan women's clubs of 1896 are again to the fore.

BOSS CROKER TALKS.
Richard Croker spent a half hour at Tammany hall today. His views were asked on the subject of disciplining certain old Democratic leaders in Kings county who have threatened to cut Van Wyck. Mr. Croker advised against action.

"What's the use of interfering?" he said. "If they are angry that would make them angrier still."
Speaking of some Tammanyites who had gone over to the Citizens Union, he said:

"It is a singular fact that men who are kicked out of Tammany all become reformers."
Mr. Croker spoke highly of the value of newspaper publicity. He commented upon the fact that his support was shown to print than to the most impassioned address of any speaker.

Mr. Croker thought it a mistake to bring speakers from outside of New York to tell voters what they ought to do in a municipal campaign.

GEORGE'S REMINISCENCES.
Henry George was again in a reminiscent mood today. It grew out of an allusion to the question of veracity which has arisen between him and ex-comptroller Elvins over the mayoralty campaign of 1888 and related to the part taken in that canvass by the Rev. Dr. Edward McGlinn, which resulted in Dr. McGlinn's suspension from the priestly office. Mr. George said that he went to Archbishop Corrigan to plead for Dr. McGlinn.

"The archbishop was very impatient," he said, "and would not listen to my explanation, which, as I tried to make clear, was not in any way antagonistic to the Catholics or the doctrines of the Catholic church."

Allen W. Thurman, son of the late Senator Allen G. Thurman, has written a letter to Henry George which incited Mr. Thurman to write an explanation, which, as I tried to make clear, was not in any way antagonistic to the Catholics or the doctrines of the Catholic church."

Colonel Henry L. Swope, sergeant-at-arms to the Republican national convention, visited Wall street today, and offered to bet any party of $25,000 at even money that General Tracey will poll more votes than Seth Low, for the mayoralty contest.

He succeeded in placing about $1,000 of it among members of the stock exchange, and half as much more with several of the brokers of the "curb." The colonel announced his intention to visit the bulls and bears again tomorrow.

"This is only a small part of the Tracey money lying around loose," said the colonel. "The trouble is, we can't find any low money to put up against it."

Van Wyck still leads in the betting on the stock exchange, odds as good as two to one that he will win being offered.

NO PROMISE OF BETTER
In the Yellow Fever Situation at New Orleans.

New Orleans, Oct. 19.—There was neither hope nor encouragement in the local situation today. The deaths did not run up to an unusual mark, but there were enough of new cases and fatalities to disappoint those who believed the fever was on the wane. As early as 7 o'clock this evening the total cases of the day were perilously near the number of the record-breaking day recently. There were at that hour 42 cases. Cases are being reported from all sections of the city.

There have been in this city up to the present time nearly 800 cases. Of these more than a hundred have died. The record is bad enough as it stands. These were the deaths today:

ANNITA VICKOR.
IGNAZIO BURRANATO.
ANTONIO RAMOS.
EMMA STOKCHALEN.
At the hour of issuing the official report of the board of health tonight the number of new cases today had reached fifty-six.

Two of today's deaths were among cases that were reported but a few minutes before the fatalities became known. Barring the fact that the cases have been numerous, here is little of interest in the general situation locally. The weather is warm and sultry, and business is depressed.

Among the new cases is Dr. Miller, a promising young physician.

The weather this afternoon was cool and damp and dangerous for the sick. The storms that have been promised for New Orleans have not reached here and there does not seem any immediate likelihood that the present spell of weather will be broken soon.

Currency is now being disinfecting in the local banks. It is considered a medium for the transmission of germs.

Judge Lee, assistant secretary of the cotton exchange, who, with several of his family, has been ill with the fever, is well again and at his desk.

Dr. Geddings, of the Marine hospital service, has gone to Franklin to look into all alleged cases there. The cases at Patterson are considered to have developed from the fatal case reported in that town some days ago.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 19.—The sixth week of the fever begins with five new cases, no deaths and eleven vacancies. The temperature has steadily fallen all day and tonight the weather is chilly and fires are a comfort.

The little town of Flomaton is depopulated. There were about 200 inhabitants, thirty of whom have taken some form of fever. The exodus is so complete that only the nurses and the sick remain.

OKLAHOMA ON WHEELS.
Oklahoma City's Exhibit in Place and Guthrie's Comes Next.

Guthrie, O. T., Oct. 19.—(Special).—The Santa Fe car tendered to Oklahoma by John Frost for the purpose of exhibiting Oklahoma products in the east arrived last evening from Oklahoma City, where that town's exhibit is placed in shape. If Guthrie makes as fine a display as Oklahoma City, she must hustle. The apiece exhibit put into the car by our sister city is by far the finest even seen in the southwest, and is many times worth a visit to the car. The Guthrie display will be mounted at once, and all persons having meritorious Oklahoma exhibits are invited to contribute them.

Colonel Kane has charge of the entire car, while Oklahoma City's exhibit is in charge of W. Tompkins and Payne county's is in charge of C. W. McGraw.

CRIES STOP THIEF

REV. MR. CANFIELD PROTESTS FOR UNIVERSALISM.

High Time, He Thinks, That the Churches Whose Right of Doctrine Has Been Softened by Liberty of the Universalist Faith Should Cease to Deny the Church From Which They Have Received so Largely—They Should Give Credit or Cease to Deny, Says the Doctor—News of Religious Conventions.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Rev. A. J. Canfield, pastor of St. Paul's Universalist church, of this city created a mild sensation today in his welcoming address to the 200 delegates to the biennial national conference of the Universalist church. Dr. Canfield said that the Universalist doctrine had become so widely accepted in this country that other denominations are taking the liberal spirit, while at the same time they show no signs of relenting in their harsh feelings against their teachers.

"The Universalist church is not going to suffer its ideas of Christian liberty to be appropriated by other churches," he continued. "We are tired of this business. We have inspired liberalism in the other churches and forced them to teach more human doctrines, and we want credit for our work, or have the finger of scorn dropped."

The address was received with manifest approval.

CHRISTIAN MISSIONARIES.
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 19.—The forenoon session of the National Christian church convention, department of foreign missions, was devoted largely to reports from the field. These included Africa, Turkey and European missions. The Rev. B. C. Dewees spoke on "Missions in the Apostolic Church." These addresses were also delivered: "Triumphs of the Cross," by Rev. J. R. Pinkerton; "The College as a Promoter of Missions," Rev. W. P. Aylesworth.

The committee on Turkey reported that the past year had been one of great trial and affliction to missionaries and churches to which they minister. Persecution has changed tactics, the report says, but has not ceased. The report says:

"We are deeply humiliated to be compelled to record that there seems to be, under the present order of things, no effective remedy for the awful crimes against humanity now being perpetrated by the unrepentant Turk."

"We express the hope that the time may yet come when the concert of powerful wills will cease to wink at these enormous cruelties and that they will take the steps which justice and humanity demands, in order that Turkey may cease from her red-handed and diabolical practices."

The committee also recommended that a man and woman missionary be sent to Constantinople.

The African report showed that there are now in Africa about 1,200 missionaries and 3,200 native helpers; about 1,900 churches with a membership of 130,000 and a community of 1,000,000 friendly to the work; 1,100 schools and colleges with 50,000 pupils.

The Europe committee noted the baptism of 200 persons in the churches of England and that these churches contributed 20 per cent more to the missions than during the previous year.

The American Christian Missionary society department of the National Christian church, held its first session this afternoon. Benjamin L. Smith, secretary, submitted his annual report. After this report was disposed of, M. W. Davis, president of the society, spoke on "The Society of Home Missions." The secretary's report was largely devoted to the work among the negroes of the south. It showed that the money received and expended since 1892 among this class amounted to $59,793. The report said there was reason for congratulation in the fact that this work is carried on with the best wishes and co-operation of the southern people.

A financial report of the board of negro education and evangelization and the Southern Christian institute for the year showed a grand total raised of $11,264.20.

The American and Foreign Missionary societies of the Christian church met in joint session in Tomlinson hall tonight. An audience of about 2,000 were present.

The twenty-third annual convention of the Foreign society expired at noon today, and the forty-ninth annual convention of the American society began this afternoon.

Tonight John Henry Barrows of Chicago and Benjamin B. Tyler of New York addressed the large audience, the former speaking on "The Christian Conflict and Conquest in Asia," and the latter on "Our Present Opportunity."

EPISCOPAL MISSIONARIES.
Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 19.—The convention of the Episcopal Missionary council opened at St. Paul's church at 10:30 today. The handsome edifice was filled to overflowing. This is one of the largest meetings ever held by the council, the attendance being considered phenomenal partly accounted for by the interest felt in the semi-centennial jubilee of the diocese of Milwaukee. It was nearly 11 o'clock when the beautiful organ gave out the first strains of the professional missionary hymn entitled "Praise Out the Banner; Let It Fly," written by Bishop Doane. First came the full supplied choir of St. Paul's, leading the procession about the church with a volume of song. Following the choir came a long line of clergy in their vestments and these were followed by the bishops in their robes in single file.

Holy communion was celebrated by Bishop Tuttle of Missouri, the senior bishop among those in attendance. Bishop Morrison of Duluth delivered the sermon.

The afternoon session was opened by an address of welcome to the delegates by Bishop Nicholson. Bishop Perkins of West Virginia responded.

Bishop Tuttle of Missouri followed with an address on Bishop Kemper, the first missionary bishop in the United States. Bishop Whipple of Minnesota spoke of the life of Rev. James Lloyd Beck, the founder of the Nashville Theological seminary.

Bishop Dudley of Kentucky read a paper on the Lambeth conference, recently held in London.

Bishop Tuttle was appointed chairman of the council during its meeting here, and Rev. Joshua Kimble of Kentucky and Rev. Henry Alsop of New York were appointed secretary and assistant secretary, respectively.

There were in attendance at the organization of the council thirteen bishops, seventy-three clergymen and about 175 other members of the council.

LUTHERANS.
Erie, N. Y., Oct. 19.—Today's session of the general session of the Evangelical Lutheran church closed the convention.

The board of publication reported the receipts to have been $13,772. The expenditures took all the receipts but $57. The council has decided on a grand convocation for choir masters, chorists and pastors of musical ability, who shall meet and practice the Lutheran service and church music. A committee was appointed to arrange for the convocation.

CATHOLIC ARCHBISHOPS.
Washington, Oct. 19.—The meeting of Catholic archbishops to consider questions of policy and administration of the church in America, and of the directors of the Catholic university to pass upon the affairs of that institution, has brought together a notable assemblage of Catholic dignitaries. All of the prominent figures of the church are represented, including Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop Martinelli, the papal delegate; Archbishop Corrigan of New York; Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul; Archbishop Ryan of Philadelphia; Archbishop Williams of Boston; Archbishop Chappell of Santa Fe; Archbishop Keane, the American representative at Rome; Archbishop Roldan of San Francisco; Bishop Farley of New York; Bishop Foley of Detroit; Bishop Horstman of Cleveland; Bishop Maes of Covington, Ky.; Bishop Hogan of Erie; Bishop Reyan, Bishop Prendergast and Monsignors Griffin, McMahon and Shorelitt.

The meeting of the directors of the university begins at 10 a. m. tomorrow. The unusual interest is attached to the meeting, owing to reports that charges will be preferred against Monsignor Shoeder, who occupies the chair of dogmatic theology in the university, with a view to his removal. Monsignor Schoeder has been a conspicuous member of the faculty, owing in part to his identification with the German membership of the church and his efforts to establish a chair of German languages, toward which many German societies have contributed.

It developed in the course of the discussion of the subject today that Monsignor Schoeder had received assurances from Rome which, in the opinion of his friends, will be decisive in putting an end to any movement toward his removal. It was stated by those conversant with the controversy that this assurance was in the form of a letter from the pope, in substance stating that Monsignor Schoeder must not be disturbed in his present field of work.

The initial feature of the gathering of churchmen occurred at the university chapel this afternoon, when Dr. Conaty, rector of the university, was invested with the title and dignity of monsignor. The assembled prelates wore their robes of office. Vice Rector Garrison read the papal brief, in which the pope takes occasion to pay a high tribute to Dr. Conaty, giving him absolution and making him a Roman prelate of the pontifical household, with the title of monsignor.

Cardinal Gibbons performed the ceremony of investiture and Archbishop Keane made the address. The archbishop spoke of his long service with the university, of its Americanism, and of the support which the pope had given to it at all times. In this connection Archbishop Keane said that when he went to Rome, a year ago, the pope said to him that the whisperings then current against the university were lies; that they were inspired by men who were enemies not only of the archbishop, but of the university—refractaries who oppose the policy of the pope. He would show, the pope said, by the manner he treated the archbishop how he honored and trusted the university.

Monsignor Conaty delivered an address acknowledging the honor conferred upon him, and promising the aspirations of the university.

Later Archbishop Keane addressed the students, placing before them a high ideal of citizenship and manhood.

COURT OF INQUIRY.

No Time Will Be Lost in Getting at the Facts in the Case of the Alleged Brutal Treatment of Private Charles Hammond—Court Already Constituted and Will Assemble at Fort Sheridan Tomorrow—Three of the Four Officers Chosen Are From Fort Leavenworth, and All Are From Outside Posts.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 19.—George Lewis, counsel for Mrs. Langtry, has issued a statement in reference to the report that the husband of the actress, when he was found wandering helplessly in the vicinity of Crewe, previous to his being sent to an asylum for the insane at Chester, had only a few copper coins in his pocket. The lawyer says that since the separation of Mrs. Langtry from her husband she has paid Mr. Langtry regularly through her counsel (Sir George Lewis) an adequate allowance, and that as soon as Mrs. Langtry heard of Mr. Langtry's condition of health she forwarded to the authorities of Chester money sufficient for the immediate wants of the sufferer.

The allowance paid Mr. Langtry, Sir George Lewis adds, was irrespective of the income which he derived from his property in Ireland.
